PRITZKER CHILDREN'S INITIATIVE

Through its Pritzker Children's Initiative, the J.B. and M.K. Pritzker Family Foundation has been a champion of quality early learning for more than two decades. The Model Convening Project partners are grateful for the grant provided by the Pritzker Children's Initiative and the guidance offered by Director Gerry Cobb and Foundation President Janet Froetscher.

CONTRIBUTORS

The Model Convening Project partners express their appreciation to the many individuals who contributed to the development of the Hand in Hand framework, stories, and briefs. They include the following people, who participated in focus groups and interviews, reviewed draft documents, and provided other useful input. While their inclusion on this list does not indicate their endorsement, their insights were invaluable in the development of the Hand in Hand resources.

MODEL CONVENING PROJECT PARTNERS – NATIONAL OFFICE CONTRIBUTORS

The national offices of the Model Convening Project partners have led the way in all aspects of the project. The Senior Leaders Team provided “big picture” guidance and oversight. The Model Liaison Team and other national office staff members supported project planning, coordination with affiliates/sites, and development of the Hand in Hand publications. The Consultant Team conducted a survey, focus groups and interviews; facilitated meetings; and wrote and designed the Hand in Hand publications. ZERO TO THREE administered the grant and provided project management and communications support.
